

"Sometimes it's the JRNY that teaches you a lot about your destination."

Drake

Tldr

I created a playlist with some of my favorite songs that speak to me in these times of dealing with my recently developed jpeg addiction.

I would have loved to make a montage of all these copyrighted songs but for the sake of the JRNYcontest I decided to write this ESSAY instead.

Abstract

This essay aims to collect references and analyze the impact JRNY club and the broader NFT space had on Hip Hop.

Introduction

I used to feel so bad for all these people who treated music just as background noise because they didn't even REALLY LISTEN.

I recently had to admit to myself that I didn't get the message ether. Turns out that all this time they were talking about NFTs especially the JRNYclub and Planet XOLO.

I decided to compile an album of some of my favorite songs as a JRNYclub soundtrack.

This playlist is going to take you on an emotional JRNY thru the highs and lows you will encounter (and hopefully save your sanity) while watching kitty, ape or xolian pics 18h a day.

Some suggestions for future collaborations

My top picks for music collaborations are:

- Ab soul (Xolo)
- Kid Cudi aka. Mr XOLO dolo

Lyric excerpts from the playlist

Going On

” Going On - CeeLo on buying JRNYclub

Connect the cause and effect, one foot in front of the next
This is the start of a JRNY (JRNY)
MY MIND IS ALREADY GONE, and the fear of the unknown
Somehow just doesn't concern me ('Cern me)

The JRNY

” The JRNY - Russ on Tony not hyping up the collection and doubts

[Russ on Tony not hyping up the collection and the haters]

I always knew I'd get this rich
That's probably about it
Quicker you come in the game
The quicker you go out it
Haters drowning in doubt
Meanwhile I'm swimming in cash
Free weed, free women, free clothes now-a-days
All we got is time, so my time is my investor
I'm single, so I save money and live better
Hope that cash that your flashings been provisioned for your taxes
'Cause the IRS is watching

I realize that JRNY is everything
There ain't no destination man the JRNY is everything
Looking back I realize the JRNY is everything
Ain't no destination man the JRNY is everything

Flip

” Flip - Russ quoting Tony's words to the haters

verse 2
Talking and being broke, that's all y'all are good for
...
Your lack of success is not my fault, with your crying ass
Spreading rumors 'bout me, bitch you reaching with your lying ass
Price, I just SWEEP, it's been two years since I've looked
If you hate but you follow, you're a fan, that's understood
You got million dollar goals, but your work ethic's a penny
I take trips around the world, you still taking trips to Denny's
That's your budget? That's so sad, you're like thirty and some change
If you're hating, just be patient, I got WAY MORE ON THE WAY
You so salty that I'm popping, my success is pepper spray
Pick a side, pick a side, once you pick it, better stay

” chorus Russ addressing the Holders

Keep that same energy, please don't flip
Please don't flip, please don't flip
Please don't flip, please don't flip
Please don't flip, please don't flip
Keep that same energy, please don't flip

Stop trying to be god

” Stop trying to be god - Travis and Cudi

Stick to the roads in my JRNY
Stay out of court when you got the attorney
She say she love but want to really burn me

New Faces v2

” New Faces - Mac, Earl, Dash

Shout out to XOLO (xolo!)
